take note

Student Life isn't just for youth ministers. It's not even just for youth ministers and students. It's for you. Parents.

Your job is tough. And that's like the understatement of the century, isn't it? Akin to saying that if you dropped a nuclear bomb on someone's head it would hurt. Yes, clearly, parenting is tough. And we at Student Life want to do everything we can to support you as you teach your teenager. And love your teenager. And show the love of Christ to your teenager.

Some of you are facing the end of a summer filled not with new school supplies and packed lunches, but with silence as your last child moves off to college two states away. In the cover story, Kevin Stevenson shares his thoughts on the old Empty Nest Syndrome, and how to know if you've adequately prepared your child to go out into the real world, maintaining a relationship with Christ.

And we know that with soccer practice, choir practice, ballet recitals, and whatever else your kid is involved in, having a consistent devotional time is hard. But it's easier with something that keeps you accountable and keeps you on the right track, which is why we offer our 31Verse devotional books. If they will help your teen grow spiritually, we'd love to hear about it!

And we'd also love to hear what you'd like to see in this e-mag. It's for you, so feel free to send an email to erin@studentlife.com. If you've got an idea for a future issue, or if you'd be interested in writing for us, email us and let us know.

We hope this issue of the Parents e-mag is beneficial. We're here for you.

Thanks.

Experience SL camp '10

Have you been banished from the chaperone's list for camp by your teenager? Have no fear, the Student Life Experience Site is here!

Read updates about recreation and missions activities, Bible Study, services and more!

Send a note that says you're thinking about them!

See pictures of campers having the time of their lives!

Listen In to worship services live!

The screenshot shows the Student Life Experience website interface. At the top, it says "LEE UNIVERSITY MAY 31ST TO 4TH" and "we are STUDENT LIFE". Below this are navigation tabs for "STUDENT LIFE CAMP", "news", "pics", "gift cards", and "send a note". There are also buttons for "LISTEN LIVE" and "camp details".

The main content area is divided into several sections:

- PHOTO ARCHIVES: A vertical list of days from "DAY ONE" to "DAY FIVE" next to a larger photo of a group of people.
- TODAY AT CAMP: A section with a "SCHEDULE" button, a "LISTEN IN LIVE" button, and a "GROUP OF THE DAY" button. It also includes a weather widget for Cleveland showing "84° with clouds".
- ADVERTISING: A banner for "STUDENT GIFT CARDS SURPRISE THEM WITH A GIFT!" featuring three students and a "SL" logo.

Check the weather at your student's camp location!

Send a gift certificate for your student to spend in the Student Life Camp Store!

OPEN UP YOUR STUDENT TO THE REST OF THE WORLD.

You can go with Servant Life on international mission trips to Ukraine, Ecuador, and South Africa. An experience that will last a lifetime, for you and your student.
